

SENATE BILL 829

By Marrero B

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 24, Chapter 7 and Title 36, relative to parental alienation.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 24, Chapter 7, Part 1, is amended by adding a new section thereto:

§ 24-7-123.

(a) In a suit for annulment, divorce, separate maintenance, or in any other proceeding requiring the court to make a custody determination regarding a minor child, a court shall not:

(1) Admit into evidence any expert testimony upon which the basis of such testimony is parental alienation syndrome; or

(2) Recognize parental alienation syndrome as a scientific method that will in any way assist the trier of fact in making a determination as to the custody or visitation of a child.

(b) For purposes of this section, "parental alienation syndrome" means the alleged disorder proposed by Richard A. Gardner that suggests that a child can become obsessively preoccupied with criticism of a parent.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2009, the public welfare requiring it.
